

Futures: A Post 16–19 Event-

Part A - for young people(16-19)

Futures is a split event for parents of young autistic people within the borough of Haringey, and for the young people themselves to celebrate their neurodiversity while gaining advice and support for their next steps towards adulthood.

We will be running two separate sessions simultaneously on site.

The Young People's event will be focused on a range of games and activities (feel free to bring your own game or device) and sharing experiences and recommendations for their respective transitions after the summer.

Part B - for Parents/Carers/Practitioners

Futures is a split event for parents of young autistic people within the borough of Haringey, and for the young people themselves to celebrate their neurodiversity while gaining advice and support for their next steps towards adulthood.

We will be running two separate sessions simultaneously on site.

The Parent/Carer/Practitioner event will be centred on the perspectives of young autistic people, with the opportunity to watch some selected clips from our recent #LondonVirtualAutisticConference2, with discussions to follow.
